51. REPAIRING A MOTORCYCLE.

Last week, my motorcycle broke down. I had to push it for about two miles before reaching town, where I got a mechanic. Mr.Muka, the mechanic, opened his tool box and got out a tyre lever and a spanner to repair my motorcycle. The front tyre had a puncture. There was a big hole in the tube. The other problem was with the spokes, two of which had broken.

First, Mr. Muka cut a patch from an old inner tube and put some rubber solution on it before fixing it on a hole. Then he looked inside his tool box for spare parts and found two new spokes, which he fixed on my motorcycle. He got a pump from his tool box and pumped the air into the tube. My motorcycle was done and I paid the mechanic, Mr.Muka.
